NORWICH BULLETIN
Willimantic Office
21 Church Street Telephone 1083

The Fourth of July was quietly observed in Willimantic. Vendors of fireworks said that business was very poor this year. One of them stated that he had sold more merchandise in three hours in former years than in two days this year.

Sports at Recreation park in the afternoon were the main attraction. The weather was not too promising but a large number of sport fans found their way to the park to witness the two big events, the machine races and the league ball game between the New London Indians and the American Thread A. A.

All the business men enjoyed the day at leisure as the clothing stores and the meat markets were closed all day and the drug stores from noon to 6 p. m. Many spent the evening in the motion picture theatres which had special programs arranged for the day.

The series of fireworks was intermittent throughout the city and there were few of the usual "night accidents." Plans for outings and trips were shattered generally by the stormy skies. Many local young people attended the dance at Lake Waugunahung, South Coventry, in the evening, however.

The machine races under the auspices of the American Thread company Athletic Association attracted a holiday crowd to Recreation park Tuesday afternoon at one o'clock. The races which included Classes A and B, trot or pace, held to their promise to be fast and more closely contested than those held here Memorial day.

One trifling accident occurred during the races when Mamie Agan, driven by Frank Terry of Jewett City, tripped and fell when rounding a curve near the three-quarter mile line. Neither driver nor horse was injured.

All the heats were very close and were declared hard and heated races by the many interested fans. Cameron, owned by George Bates of Preston, took first money for Class A, and won three heats in succession. Chas. Chimes, Class B, owned by H. Rowd of Windham, took the first two heats, but broke during the third and lost first place to Peter Knapp, owned by the Thread City Driving Club and driven by Albert Girouard of Jewett City.

The prizes for both classes were 100 pounds of oats. The officials were: Starter, Walter King; Judges, Wallace Hill, James Adams, Arthur Williams; the clerk was J. B. Davis and timekeeper, Alma Marthaus.

The entries, their owners and the results of the heats are listed below:

Class A: Peter Knapp, M. Mitchell, Jewett City; 4 4 4
Chas. Chimes, N. Brown, Hartford; 3 3 3
Class B: H. Rowd, Windham; 2 2 2
Cameron, George Bates, Preston; 1 1 1
Time of the successive heats 2:24 1-4

Some of the spirit of unrest which pervaded the town last week is shown in the fact that the fire bell from the 21st Avenue of Bridge and Mountain streets, Engine company No. 2 responded to the false alarm.

Manfield Center's celebration of the Fourth commenced with a show and picnic shortly after 1 o'clock on the estate of L. S. Birelow near Echo Lake. Jim Small was the chef. Athletic sports and a baseball game followed. The White Eagle Club, a veteran band of this city furnished music.

Local Elks and their friends who made the trip to Putnam Monday night to attend Willimantic night at the Putnam lodge of Elks' carnival, reported a wet trip.

Miss Beattie Almond of Fall River, Mass., spent the holiday with Mrs. J. H. Shepard.

Miss Elizabeth Sullivan of 254 Jackson street has an engagement with Miss Margaret Eyer of New London.

Mrs. J. P. Booth, who has been ill for the past month is improving steadily. The family of J. B. Hurley of 104 North street is at Groton Long Point for the summer.
